

Delphi Events Calendar – What’s on in November?

A beautiful time here in the West of Ireland and it’s a little quieter but there are a few interesting events taking place in the Galway, Leenane, Westport and Southwest Mayo region.

Friday 4th to Sunday 6th

The Rolling Sun Festival

This quirky boutique festival will provide a feast of entertainment for bookworms and foodies, choristers and musicians, artists and revellers. And all in the shadow of the ancient spiritual mountain – once called Cruachán Aigle – that holds the cross-millennial story of our rich Celtic and Christian narrative.

See... www.rollingsunbookfestival.com

Friday 4th to Sunday 20th

Tulca Festival of Visual Arts

TULCA is a multi-venue, artist-centred festival of contemporary art that works with Irish curators to present innovative exhibitions that provoke and energise audiences into the world of the Visual Arts.

See... <http://www.tulcafestival.com/>

Saturday 12th

Sea 2 Summit

The Westport Sea2Summit adventure race is a unique event based in the adventure capital of Ireland, Westport. The race will incorporate all the thrills that Westport has to offer, Croagh Patrick, Clew Bay, the Sheaffry Mountains and the new Greenway.

See... <http://www.westportsea2summit.ie>

The Three Tenors (Westport Town Hall)

Magical Hits & Popular Uplifting Mix from Sinatra, Leonard Cohen, The Dubliners, and Pavarotti... Ireland’s hottest trio – Ray O’Hare, Dominic McGorian and Declan Kelly with their amazing voices promise you a night to remember! Noted for their friendliest down-to-earth approach, the trio love to talk with their audience during and after each show. This thrilling fast-moving concert is packed with the world’s most beautiful, magical feel-good, uplifting songs.

See... www.westporttheatre.com

Saturday 12th & Sunday 13th

The Irish Fly Fair

The season may be over but if you need a “fix”, Ireland’s biggest fly fishing extravaganza will again feature the largest host of fly tiers and angling stands under one roof in Ireland ever at an angling show. A must for enthusiasts – you know who you are.

See... <http://www.irishflyfair.com/>

Monday 14th to Sunday 27th

Galway Science & Technology Festival

Who says learning can't be fun? This two-week festival provides shows and workshops to schools in Galway.

See... <http://www.galwayscience.ie/>

Warning! If you aren't psychologically prepared for that time of year... 'Yule' want to look away NOW...

Friday 18th November to Thursday 22nd December

Galway Continental Christmas Market

Ireland's longest running Christmas Market, the Galway Continental Christmas Market, returns to its home in Eyre Square, Galway City. The Galway Continental Christmas Market – which is presented by the Galway City Business Association – will launch the festive season in Ireland being the earliest Christmas Market to open in the country.

See... <http://galwaychristmasmarket.ie/>

Saturday 26th November to Friday 23rd December

Winter Wonderland at Westport House

Meet Santa, Mrs Claus and their Elves! Experience a blizzard of Christmas spirit as you step into the stunning 18th century Westport House, which will be transformed into a magical winter wonderland.

See... <http://www.westporthouse.ie/events-calendar/winter-wonderland/>